her estimates. She will work for Representatives that she considers desirable and criticise those she does not consider desirable, and it is neither "selfish" nor "narrow" for iter to do so.

And till yesterday did we not gloat over cur apparent prosperity? Industry flourished, capital doubled with the rising of the tide; our national wealth, a tremendous sum, told that we of the United States of American and the control of the control o ier to do so.

As to our cause, to which reference is made, our cause is the cause of Americanism, of our cause is the cause of Americanism, of our national mental attitude. This, we hope,

> A man lives by believing something. These who survive this great war will teach the doctrine of brotherly love because they believe it. They who have seen human blood flow as if it were water will have greater faith in this soul spirit. The love of God and the love of man are identically what the Man of Nazareth taught-sincerity to one's

So while shrapped rakes the battlefields of I heard an eminent judge say recently: "It is a question whether any man to-day who is against woman suffrage is a proper representative in this great democracy." Understand, woman suffrage is not one question. It is a great consideration of deep tent that daylight had been existent for more than thirty minutes.

Similarly, last aight the arcs were lighted all nations that logality to the soul is far great consideration of deep tent and the soul is far great consideration of deep tent and the soul is far great consideration of deep tent and the soul is far great consideration of deep tent and the soul is far great consideration of deep tent and the soul is far great consideration of deep tent and the soul is far great consideration of deep tent and the soul is far great consideration of deep tent and the soul is far great consideration of the soul is far great con
